You can be an Angel in our community by supporting the ministry of the Christian Outreach Program of Elkhorn (COPE).

COPE is an organization of Christians whose goals are to assist persons who have needs that are temporarily greater than their resources. COPE offers support to persons regardless of religious, cultural or ethnic background. COPE focuses its efforts in western Douglas County and offers first priority to persons who demonstrate their willingness to improve their personal and job skills and who are willing to participate with COPE in assisting others.

COPE provides help for the following needs:

- Food, clothing, household goods
- Shelter improvement
- English Language and culture
- Health and dental assistance
- Utility assistance
- Job referrals
- Legal issues
- Communication with schools and emergency agencies
